

My Turn

Body Boundary Violation

Directions: Read each scenario and decide if a body boundary violation or a personal boundary violation has occurred.

1. While you are changing your clothes at dance class, one of your friends opens the dressing room door and takes a picture of you with their phone.

Body Boundary Violation

Personal Boundary Violation

2. Your uncle is angry and slaps you on the back when you accidentally spill his coffee.

Body Boundary Violation

Personal Boundary Violation

3. A guest at your parents' house walks into the bathroom when you are in the shower.

Body Boundary Violation

Personal Boundary Violation

4. Your coach hugs you too tight and for too long when you score the winning goal.

Body Boundary Violation

Personal Boundary Violation

My Turn: Body Boundary Violation (Continued)

Directions: Read each scenario and decide if the unsafe secret is being kept because of a threat, promise, or a trick. Tell why you think it is a threat, promise, or trick being used to keep an unsafe secret.

1. A man at the mall asks you to model a bathing suit while he takes pictures of you. He tells you that you will be in a magazine as long as you don't tell anyone.

Threat

Promise

Trick

Why?

2. Your neighbor asks you to come and babysit her son. When you get their house, the son is not there. You are confused. Your neighbor pays you and tells you that you can keep the money if you stay for a while and don't tell your mother.

Threat

Promise

Trick

Why?

3. You are asked to deliver a bag to an older kid in the neighborhood. You are told that you better not look in the bag and that the bag better get delivered or you will be sorry.

Threat

Promise

Trick

Why?